PACIFICO

Panama & Thailand

6 YEAR OLD RUM

• DESCRIPTION •

A molasses-based aged rum, column-distilled, Pacifico is a blend of rums aged 6 to 12 years, sourced from Panama and Thailand — two lands connected by the vast Pacific Ocean and a shared style of round, spicy rum that perfectly complement each other. The presence of extra-old rums in the blend adds depth and balance to the final profile.

• TASTING NOTE •

Nose: A rich and elegant bouquet combining aromas of caramel, praline, candied orange, and subtle floral notes.

Palate: Ample and aromatic, it reveals notes of liquorice, eucalyptus, and chocolate, with a spicy touch of nutmeg. The finish is long and well balanced.
